PREMIER REBUTS CRITICISM.

IRISH TREATY DEBATES.

ULSTER STILL MAKING TROUBLE.

LONDON, December 15. The debates in the special sessions of the House of Lords and Commons called to ratify the Irish treaty adjourned yesterday evening.

Mr. Lloyd George, in a masterly oration in the rebutted criticsms. He declared that no agreement had compelled to have recourse to credit operation. ever received such enthusiastic worldwide welcome. He hoped that the old motto." England's danger is Ireland's opportunity" would have a new meaning-the meaning which the Dominions gave it in 1914.

CARSON'S BITTER ATTACK.

Unionist dichards and Ulsterites tabled amendments to the address in both Houses regretting the surrender of the Crown's rights in Ireland and declaring that the treaty violates the pledges to Ulster.

A feature of the debate in the House of Lords was Sir Edward Carson's bitter attack on the Government. He declared that a greater outrage on constitutional liberty had never been attempted.

ASQUITH'S SUPPORT.

The Irish debates were resumed in both Houses.

Mr. Asquith, in the House of Commons, wholehear edly supported the treaty but solemnly warned that it would be the greatest mistake to suppose that when it was ratified they had come nearly to the end of the difficulty.

Colonel J. Gretton, who moved the Diehards' amendment mentioned earlier talked about negotiations with a murder gang.

Mr. Winston Churchill contended that Britain's confirmed. interests were fully safeguarded. He said that in spite of the extremists' denunciations, nineteen twentieths of both peoples were determined to carry peace through. Mr. Bonar Law also spoke in favour of the agreement,

MR. BONAR LAW'S VIEWS.

Mr. Bonar Law said that excepting as regards boundaries the agreement represented the alternative policy he would have presented had such become necessary. He regretted the unjust and bitter feeling against Uister and opined that Ulster ought to consider the question of the adjustment of boundaries if the agreement did not mean the severance of any counties

COMMONS DEBATE ADJOURNED.

The Commons debate was adjourned after Mr. Austen Chamberlain had stated that the house would not prorogue until the result of the Dail Eireann discussion was known.

IN THE LORDS.

In the House of Lords, Lord Midleton leader of the Southern Unionists favoured a joint body for affairs of common interest to the North and South and said he believed it was the duty of Southern Unionists to work with the new Government as long South Ireland remained within the empire.

Lord Northumberland moved a "diehard" amendment and the debate was adjourned.

CRAIG INTRACTABLE.

LONDON, December 15.

Sir James Craig, the Ulster Premier, on December vinced that it is not in the interests of Britain or the Shagtunn conversations, Empire that Ulster should become subordinate to the Sinn Fein Government. It declares that in the long run the British nation will recognise that Ulster's action in remaining outside the Irish Free State is to their interests and will accord the Northern Parliament such measures of protection as will counteract the disadvantages due to her position as a frontier state of the United Kingdom.

MORATORIUM SOUGHT.

Berlin, December 15.

The German Government has informed the committee of guarantees that it is unable to pay the reparations instalment due on December 15. Consequently it House of Commons supporting the address to the Throne, asks for a moratorium. If this is not granted it will be GERMANYS UTMOST.

Paris, December 15.

The German note to the Reparations Commission notifying its inability to pay the reparations instalments due on January 15 and December 15 states that efforts to raise either a long-dated loan or a short-dated credit with Britain have not succeeded. The utmost Germany can raise apart from deliveries in kind and authorised credits is 200,000,000 marks. The note requests an extension of the time limit and adds that similar difficulties will arise in connection with subsquent payments. The Reparations Commission will immediately refer the note to the Allies.

The conclusion of the naval ratio agreement is

CHIEF TERMS.

LONDON, December 16. Reuter's Washington correspondent understands that the chief terms of the naval ratio agreement provide that Japan shall keep the "Mutsu" and scrap the "Setsu." Fortifications in the Pacific will remain in statu quo. Hawaii is excluded from this. Britain will scrap four dreadnoughts of the "King George" class but will equalise the position by the addition of two new vessels.

The tonnage allotted to Britain and the United States under the original proposals was raised to approximately 525,000, thus permitting America to include the "Washington" and "Colorado" while Britain is enabled to build two new ships of under 40,000 tons, presumably of the "Royal Sovereign" class. Japan's ratio is proportionately increased. Mr. Hughes' original plan is otherwise unchanged but it is understood that the submarines question and the replacement of capital ships is to be discussed by the new Naval Committee of fifteen convened to meet to-day.

A FRENCH REQUEST.

WASHINGTON, December 15.

The spokesman of the French delegation states that when the conference considers the question of the French and Italian navies France will request allotment to France of 315,000 tons of capital ships and a proportionate percentage of smaller warships.

SHANTUNG CONVERSATIONS.

WASHINGTON, December 15.

It is officially announced that the Far Eastern 14, sent Mr. Lloyd George the reply of the Ulster Cabinet | Committee adjourned in order to give an opportunity. on the Irish agreement. The reply declares that in spite to the sub-committee to reach an agreement at the of the inducements offered to Ulster the latter is con- carliest possible moment and allow for progress in the RICH WOMAN STARVES.

SIX YEARS IN A DARKENED HOUSE.

Although she possessed property worth £75,000, Mrs. Margaret Easton, an octogenarian, of Brooklyn, a suburb of New York, died from starvation alone in a house from which she had not stirred for six

Her husband died in 1915, and on that day Mrs. Easton drew the blinds and, having discharged the servants, locked the doors and refused to allow: anyone to enter the house. Food was delivered through a small grating at the back door. Children who ventured to peep beneath the blinds used to see the figure of an elderly woman dressed in a costume of the sixties sittin cocking herself to and fro.

Lawly, the owner of a neighbouring grocer's shop, who called occasionally to supply her with food, was told to go away when he went for an order. Realising that she had had no food for more than a week, he sent his wife to inquire if anything was wrong. Mrs. Easton told her that she was under the doctor, "but I'm not taking his medicine," she added, again refusing food. The grocer communicated with the rolice, who through the window saw the recluse sitting in her chair apparently asleep. As she did not respond to the knocking on the door they forced an entrance and found her dead. Bearching the house they found bank books relating to deposite of considerable amounts and a dred box containing securities, together with levellery and rash, to the value 000. Bo lar as can be discovered Mrs. Esston had neither friends nor

THE TAIL OF THE CHOW DOG.

[To the Editor of the " China Mail."]

Sir,-In the official account of Lord Macartney's first Embassy to China, the Chinese dog is described as follows :- "It is a small species with a long recurved tail, of which caprice or fashion does not deprive him; and which is generally leaning to the left as Linnaus remarks of the domestic dog." THE 1921 CENSUS.

FINAL REPORT TABLED.

Some interesting information contained in the report on the census recently taken in the Colony, which was laid before the Legislative Council at yesterday afternoon's meet ing. Prepared by the Census Officer, Mr. J. D. Lloyd, the document runs to 82 foolscap pages, three-fourths of which is taken up by statistical Govan by the Fairfield Shipbuilding summaries and comparative tables.

The Colory's total population was found to be 625,166. This is an increase of 168,427 on the figures for 1911. Mr. Lloyd thinks that our normal population is in the neighbourhood of 660,000 but says there was never any reason to believe that it reached 1,000.000.

BOBBED HAIR FARCE.

GIRL AND FEROCIOUS "BANDIT."

Because she wented to bob her hair and her parents refused to allow her to do so, Marjorie Haws, a 17-yearsold girl, of Westwood, a suburb of New York, resorted to strategy which produced a reign of terror through

After she had reported that a fiercelooking ruffian several times attempted to force his way into the house when she was alone, special police patrols were established throughout the district and women warned to keep indoors after dark. One night the police received an urgent telephone call from the girl's house. To the rescuing party she told a story of a terrible-looking man who had attacked her and out off her hair. Her story produced what the chief constable described as a "condition of frenzied fear among the female population. It subsided when that official, puzzled by pertoin features of the case, notably by the fact that the I drocious attacker obligingly collected the victim's hairpins and placed them hastey or the dining room table beiges departing, taxed, the girl with inventure the whole story.

With thany tears Marjorie confer ed that such was indeed the case.

YESTERDAY'S FINANCE MINUTES.

At the close of yesterday's meeting of the Legislative Council the Finance Committee met under the chairman ship of the Colonial Secretary to consider the following Financial recommendations by H. E.

MOTOR AMBULANCES. $4,989 in aid of the vote Police Special Expenditure, Motor Ambul-

The Chairman : This refers to the second motor ambulance. One motor ambulance was bought out of the money handed over by the Red Cross at home; another ambalance was to be purchased by the Colony and a sum of $7,000 was provided in this year's estimates. The cost of this ambulance has been, in sterling, £1,569—taking the total of one bill with the Crown Agents of £1,370 and another of £199. The total in dollars is $11,988.17. The estimate was $7,000 and owing to the fall in exchange the amount in dollars has been greater by the amount saked for in the minute—$4,989. The cost of the ambulance was not known exactly; when the estimate was made it was thought $7,000 would be enough.

The Chairman: The excess on the maintenance of roads and bridges outside the City is due to the heavy cost of maintaining the section Pokfulum Road between No. bridge and Aberdeen—that is, on the other side of the Dairy Farm-also in Victoria Road. The Chairman : I think Hill District" in this case probably refers to one or two special lamps which were asked for. When the minute came to the Government there was no mention of the Hill District, -only the City District.

Director of Public Works to be good enough to explain these votes to the Committee.

The Director of Public Works: The first item is for widening and improving the Taipo Road between the 3rd and 5th milestones. The vote for the year was $15,000. There was a sum of $5,711 in the previous year's estimates which it was not possible to expend that year. Then it was found that this work did not cover the whole road up to the Waterworks and a certain amount was authorised later on. The work is nearly completed to that point. was found that an abnormal amount 200.00 of rock, all the way, brought the cost | gere and Cargo for the above Ports. out of all proportion to what one usually expects. The Director of Public Works: As regards the pier at Chenng Chan, the estimated expenditure before was $15,000, but certain extra work increased this by $2,500. "THE SILVER KING."

Taking one of the most famous melodramas ever written for the setting, Paramount has achieved fine success with Heary Arthur Jones' "The Silver King," which comes to the Coronet Theatre this evening. The story is unusually forceful. Wilfred Denver, open-hearted and unsuspecting, makes a bitter enemy of Godfrey. Ware when he marries the woman Ware had hoped to win for himself. Denver is induced to put all his money on the wrong horse, and is later led to believe that he killed his unsuccessful rival while under the influence of liquor following his ruin. He escapes to America leaving his wife Lindsell this morning with having and children penniless.
